1       LOCAL UNIONS 387, 640, AND 769, INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD
2               OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS, AFL-CIO, CLC
3               DOCKET NO. E-01345A-03-0437
4               TESTIMONY SUMMARY OF ROBERT E. DeSPAIN

5       On behalf of the IBEW Locals 387, 640, and 769, Robert E.
6       Despain, as the principal officer for Local Union 387, discusses
7       the working relationships among each of the intervening local
8       unions and APS, as well as the legal distinction between the 9       unions as separate entities. Each of the Local Union's has a
10      dual role in these proceedings: one in its capacity as labor
11      organization and the second as customers under APS's small-
12      business E-32 Rate Plan. IBEW Local Unions 387, 640, and 769
13      support the Proposed Settlement in this matter as the Unions'
14      believe that APS is a responsible corporate citizen, it has a
15      stable relationship with its employees and the certified
16      representative of its employees, and the proposed relief will
17      provide APS with the means to meet its future commitments.
